"Buchrückseite ANDREAS WILDERER IS NO TRADITIONAL FATHER. An entrepreneur and business leader, Andreas has also spent time in the home, raising his children and supporting his executive wife in her business aspirations. Now, he wants to share his story and inspire other men to do the same. In Lean On: The Five Pillars of Support for Women in Leadership, Andreas recognizes that gender roles today are shifting rapidly and that we need to adapt for the sake of our families. Inside, you'll discover how you can run your family like a business and how to empower your spouse on their career path?all told through Andreas's unique experiences living with a female executive. Men, it's time to step up to the plate and join the fight for gender equality. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende ANDREAS WILDERER was born and raised in Germany, where he also met his wife, Mirka--a successful female executive. In 2016, he founded GLOBULARiTY LLC, a business coaching company that helps leaders grow and learn how to strengthen their Adaptability Quotient (AQ). Andreas is also a Gallup-certified Strengths Coach. While working on his business pursuits, Andreas has also dedicated time to supporting his wife and family; he stayed at home and cared for his two children while his wife pursued her career. Driven by his own experience, Andreas started his work on coaching female leaders and the men who support them."
