Welcome to Toby Hart's world. This is the first installment of someone who on the face of it has everything, but the reality is somewhat different.

Toby is a handsome chap who has never had problems forming relationships with beautiful women, but his desires are dominated by his foot fetishism, coupled with his need to be controlled by a loving partner.

The world sees a confident young man, seemingly with the world at his feet, when all he desires is to lay at the feet of his dream woman – wherever she may be. This first novella-read of over ten thousand words details his early days and the events that unleashed his secret desires. At time humorous, at times sad, so please enjoy as you follow Toby's journey and the events that will lead to him meeting the woman of his dreams. See the world through his eyes as he surreptitiously gazes at various women's feet. The world of shoe dipping, toe cleavage, slowly wriggling toes encased in stockings and glorious high foot arches. This is just the beginning of his journey, and the preamble to further similar bite-sized reads where Toby will find himself submitting at the feet of a truly dominant woman. Where love will develop and blossom. This is a light hearted foot fetish story. If you prefer more extreme reads then please check out my other efforts.© Toby Hart 2018.
