"Pressestimmen 'Best of all the book is not only packed full of information, it is well organized and easy to read. There are 100â (TM)s of color photos and illustrations of everything from script excerpts and exposure sheets to story boards. The index is through and the recommended reading list is very comprehensive. This book should be at every animatorâ (TM)s finger tips. No matter whether you are just starting to make your first film or have been at the game a long time, the book is full of good advice and practical information' -Nancy Denney-Phelps AnimationWorld Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende Since finishing his MA in 2008, Ben Mitchell has worked as an animation freelancer with Channel 4, BBC, A Productions, Plymptoons, Rumpus Animation, Slurpy Studios, Happy Hour Productions, Somethin' Else, Jelly Penguin, Channel Flip, and others. As an independent filmmaker he has directed several shorts that have been officially selected for over 100 major film and animation festivals between them and been broadcast internationally. He is also a writer, researcher, and Managing Director of Skwigly Online Animation Magazine, where he has conducted interviews with some of the animation industry's leading practitioners and produced editorial features, events coverage, film/product reviews, project management, video content and the Skwigly Animation Podcast."
