"Amazon.de 'Endete dieser Wettlauf denn nie? Aber so war nun einmal Geschichte -- jahrtausendelang, seit Menschengedenken: Ein Querfeldeinlauf auf der ewigen Flucht vor der Hölle.' Harlans Endspurt ist weitaus mehr als nur die Fortsetzung jener bitter-süßen Lovestory Der Langstreckenläufer, mit der Patricia Nell Warren einen Klassiker der schwulen Literatur landen konnte. Hatte sie dort das gesellschaftspolitische Klima der 1970er-Jahre eingefangen, so sind es jetzt die 80er-Jahre, die Warren ins Visier genommen hat. Harlan Brown ist jetzt in die Jahre gekommen und blickt zurück, und dies durchaus im Zorn. Es ist kein versöhnliches Buch, sondern bestimmt von einem großen Schmerz, der sich auf mehreren Handlungsebenen äußert und dadurch geschickt zur Chronik dieser Dekade wird. Harlan vertritt eine Generation, in der Homosexualität noch mit Schuld und Schande besetzt war. In der Auseinandersetzung mit jüngeren Schwulen muss er allmählich erkennen, wie sehr er selbst noch in den homophoben Fangstricken gefangen ist, die ihn zu Selbsthass und Verleugnung treiben. Aus dieser Perspektive betrachtet, ist der Roman vor allem eine endgültige Befreiung aus diesen Fesseln. Die ewige Flucht hat für ihn ein Ende. Doch stellt sich dies nicht als Sieg dar, denn groß sind die Opfer auf diesem Weg. In diesem Sinne erzählt der Roman die Geschichte der Aids-Krise. Wie durch ein Wunder bleibt Harlan Überlebender, als ob seine Aufgabe darin bestünde, die Trauer einer ganzen Ära ausdrücken zu müssen. Was vordergründig als Kriminalhandlung funktioniert (die tatsächliche lebensbedrohende Verfolgung durch einen Wahnsinnigen) wird zum Symbol eines Wettlaufs mit der Zeit, den viele verlieren werden. Doch jenseits dieser Übertragung vom individuellen Schicksal ins umfassend Gesellschaftliche bleibt der Roman doch auch wie sein Vorläufer eine große Liebesgeschichte zwischen zwei Menschen, die sich gegen all jene Widrigkeiten zur Wehr zu setzen wissen und eine Liebe leben, die buchstäblich zwischen animalischer Geilheit und brachialer Gewalt oszilliert. Aus der Schilderung dieser bis zur Selbsterstörung reichenden Liebe gewinnt der Roman sein stärkstes Spannungsmoment und macht ihn zu einer im doppelten Sinn rasenden Erzählung. --RJ Poole Synopsis This best-selling international gay guide, now in its 31st edition, continues to go from strength to strength. Full colour pages throughout makes this market leader even more accessible and attractive, firmly placing this guide at the top of the guides available. An essential companion for every gay traveller and an essential stock item for every travel section. Posters and counterpacks are also available. Der Verlag über das Buch Endlich! Die Fortsetzung vom Langstreckenläufer!Nach dem Attentat auf seinen Liebhaber Billy steckt Harlan in einer verzweiferten Lage. Harlan ist das Ziel einer anti-schwulen Hetzkampagne der Presse sowie eines anonymen Briefeschreibers, der ihn den Tod des Geliebten nicht vergessen lässt. Als auch nach Jahren die Drohungen und Anschläge nicht abreißen, erhärtet sich bei Harlan der Verdacht, dass es sich bei seinem Verfolger und Billys Mörder um ein und dieselbe Person handelt. Harlan kommt zu dem Schluss, dass er sich nicht länger verstecken darf und dass er den Täter aus seinem Hinterhalt locken muss. Deshalb steigt Harlan noch einmal aktiv ins Sportgeschäft ein und begibt sich bei einem Wettkampf ins Fadenkreuz des Mörders. Über den Autor und weitere Mitwirkende In nur drei Jahrzehnten ist Patricia Nell Warren zu einer der bekanntesten und anerkanntesten Autoren schwuler Literatur geworden. Mit acht erfolgreichen Romanen und einer geschätzten Leserschaft von über 20 Millionen Menschen weltweit werden ihre Werke von vielen als ein ehrliches Abbild schwulen Lebens in einer literarischen Synthese empfunden./ Patricia Nell Warren wurde 1936 in Montana geboren. Neben ihrem literarischen Engagement beschäftigt sich die Autorin noch als investigative Journalistin und Kolumnistin."
