"Pressestimmen ?Beautiful. . . . a totally fascinating and engaging representation of cultural diaspora and hybrid identities.? ?Giant Robot?Marvelous . . . the trilingual narrative, personal recollections, reflections, and stories cumulatively convey the complexities of the modern diasporic world.?"

?Pan-Japan?Visually arresting . . . Circle K Cycles?s brilliant fusing of forms is perfectly suited to its subject matter.? ?Review of Contemporary Fiction?Thoughtful . . . a complex globalized twenty-first-century stew of laboring class migrations, cultural diffusions, and loosening national identities.?"

?Multicultural Review?This book of hybrids opens a door onto one of the important issues of the new century and illustrates a global society that resists heritage by hyphenation.? ?Rafu Shimpo?At once [a] short story collection, memoir and scrapbook?charmingly enlivened with snapshots, advertisements, signs, random factoids and graphics. . . . [Yamashita] brings it all together with humor and heart.?"
