"Recensione ""Ilse Crawford is beloved for her Nordic form-and-function sensibility matched with an irreverent eye...Her firm, Studioilse, strongly embraces primary colors, Danish modernism, and a folkloric style that celebrates whimsy and simplicity at once. Her projects, ranging from private homes to esteemed commercial spaces, incorporate her respect for historical integrity and an urgency for livability..."" -""Vogue""""Must-Have Coffee Table Book. Ilse Crawford, founder of the London-based design firm Studioilse, defines her philosophy of warm, ""human-centric"" interiors in a new book that displays her own home as well as various commercial spaces that she and her team have created. With an emphasis on comfort and practicality, she demonstrates how to foster a more holistic life through well-planned environments."" -Harpers Bazaar """"A Frame for Life...""renowned designer and style expert Ilse Crawford showcases her body of influential, holistic work for the first time, articulating her groundbreaking philosophies for design and living. This volume illustrates why Crawford's design philosophy is so seminal --her work has influenced not only a generation of Dutch and European designers, but also Americans due to her acclaimed Soho House New York."" -""Editor at Large"" L'autore Ilse Crawford is a designer and the head of the department of man and well-being at the prestigious Design Academy Eindhoven in the Netherlands. Edwin Heathcote is the architecture and design correspondent for The Financial Times in London."
