"Pressestimmen 'The king of guidebooks.' - Newsweek Synopsis Rising at the southern edge of Lake Michigan, Chicago is a beautiful city with a stunning skyline, world-famous museums, glorious houses of worship, and tempting galleries and shops. This completely updated edition covers the necessities thoroughly while also shedding light on the Chicago that usually only the natives see. Readers can dine out on the recommendations of the Chicago Tribune food critic Phil Vettel and select from a wide range of luxury and family hotels. Tours reveal Chicago's rich ethnic and cultural history and there are new tours of the Golf Coast neighbourhood and the up and coming neighbourhood of Bucktown/Wicker Park. There are also excursions to nearby architectural masterpieces by Frank Lloyd Wright, as well as the best of Milwaukee."
