Worlds collide when two strangers meet at Waterloo station. It's a moment they'll never forget. Nicola is a star at the top of the corporate ladder, but her personal life is a disaster. Her office affair has run its course, and the last thing she wants to think about is Christmas. A night of cancelled trains and festive Christmas carols at Waterloo Station is the last straw... Dmitri loves conducting his pop-up choir during the festive season, meeting people, and spreading joy and cheer around London. But he carries deep secrets from his past that robbed him of his dream to become a concert pianist. Can two lonely hearts and souls be unlocked by music and moonlight and will they discover the healing power of love? Perfect for the fans of Milly Johnson, Debbie Johnson, Sarah Morgan, Karen Swan and Heidi Swain. Praise for Moonlight on the Thames: 'I have literally fallen in love with this book' Nessa. 'I loved this book ... Quite emotional at times' Rachel Kennedy. 'With a big heart, this is one where you'll actually feel emotion on the page' Kathleen Gray. 'A lovely read for your Christmas list' Lisa Houston. 'A hauntingly beautiful novel' Christopher Helton..
